COVID-19 On Kolkata streets, students from Darjeeling face racial slurs linked to coronavirus

Coronavirus outbreak
Why ICMR will not expand tests: Not rational given India size

EXPLAINED
By The Indian Express

India has conducted roughly 6,000 tests so far, lower than the US (6,000), Japan (9,600), France (12,000), the UK (13,000), and Italy (23,000). South Korea has conducted as many as 2 lakh, which experts see as the reason for their significantly declining numbers.
